FOREWORD

We have chosen our school song, "Oh, Glenwood High", for the theme of the 1953 NUSHKA. Throughout the days of your life, when you recall the words of this song, may you turn these pages and be grateful for your school days spent at Glenwood. It is with pleasure that we, the Senior Class, offer you this fifth volume of the NUSHKA to refresh your memories of the past.

Because of her personal interest in the individual student, we, the Class of 1953, affectionately dedicate this year's NUSHKA to Mrs. Margaret B. Norris. She has given freely of her time and energy in helping us solve our many problems. Her pleasant smile, her loving kindness, and her enthusiasm have been a true inspiration to us. So it is with pleasure that we gratefully pay this tribute to her---our beloved teacher and friend.

CLASS POEM

Within Glenwood walls we sit
In deepest reverie,
Recalling the days here spent
By the class of '53.

Through these dear halls we strode,
When life was carefree;
Yes, happy days were these
For the class of '53.

Now the time has come,
The moments swiftly flee,
When we must depart.
This class of '53.

To our teachers, we would say
Many thanks to thee
For your loving guidance
Of the class of '53.

To those we leave behind,
Juniors, Sophs, Freshmen, three,
Many blessings to you
From the class of '53.

When in future days we dream,
Happy we will be,
If we hallow memories
Of the class of '53.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF 53

History was indeed begun when, twelve years ago last September, a crowd of hurrying mothers led, followed, or dragged their hopefuls to the seat of learning. Here they were received by Miss Barbara Wagner and Mrs. Earl Woody, and the first round of the ladder of knowledge was mounted.

Eight years we slaved, learning what we possibly could, forgetting the rest. Long remembered will be the multiplication table because of its difficulty.

In May 1950, eighty-one of us bade Mr. and Mrs. William Elmore good-bye, thinking that we were ready for high school and that all worries were over. In September the same year, we entered high school. At last we were experiencing that grand feeling of being a "high school student." To get to the right class on time and not to starve before lunch became our chief ambitions. We regret to say that these goals are as yet unattained.

Were our heads held high when we became "Sophomores." Some of the "freshmen greenness" had worn off and we were on the way to becoming Seniors, but algebra and biology came along to put our minds back to work again.

The Junior Year! Will we ever forget the play "Faith, Hope, and Flarity?"-----The scuttle for raising money to give the Seniors a banquet-----or the joy of actually going to the banquet? But rings, rings, class rings! stand out in our memory as being the most important. Shall we ever forget the feeling of choosing the ring that we were to wear? The ring which was to remind us of our Alma Mater and our carefree classmates.

A dignified number, left at the gates of learning eleven long years ago, were Seniors on the home stretch. We started our last year with much zeal and enthusiasm knowing there were many things that were yet to be completed. Imagine ordering our invitation, announcing our graduation exercises-----the printing of our annual, "The Nushka"-----anticipating a banquet given for us. Through all these incidents and many others we have at last ascended the top round of the ladder of a high school education. As we continue the endless task of learning, our thoughts are drawn to these lines written by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime.
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

CLASS HISTORIAN

CLASS PROPHECY

This is another hot sultry day in July 1965. I am secretary for the Cairo Hotel in Washington, D.C., and am beginning my two weeks' vacation. For quite awhile, I had been wondering where my classmates were and what positions they hold.

When I stepped off the bus in Marion, whom should I see first? None other than Anne Haney! She told me that she is teaching at the University of N.C., and plans to be married soon. Anne says that Doris Ledbetter is an actress in Hollywood and still unmarried. Helen Hill is manager of Belk Broome's Company in Sugar Hill. Anna Laura Morgan is now the wife of Henry Humphries and is nursing at Marion General Hospital. Rose Ann Hensley and Doris Morgan are famous hill-billy singers.

As it was lunch time, we departed. I went into Walker's Cafe and to my surprise I saw Lewis Walker. He joked, "I am the owner of this grub house." Then I recognized one of the waitresses, who was Betty Lou Gardner. Lewis told me that Raymond Ledbetter is a professor at Lenior Rhyne College. Nancy Marlowe is owner of Marlowe's Beauty Shoppe in Glenwood. Barbara Cooper writes stories about the personal affairs of movie stars. After I ate lunch, I journeyed on down Main Street.

While doing some window shopping, a familiar name caught my eye which read "Katy Holland's Record Shop." While talking to Katy, I learned that Zula Mae Sprouse is a nurse at Winston-Salem Hospital and is married to a photographer. She also told me of Wayne Laughridge, who is owner of the Lover's Theater in Asheville.

As I strolled on down the street, I decided to go into Workman's and, to my surprise, I ran into Betty Jo Hall, who said that she is still happily married and has a cute little girl. Betty told me that Marvin Williams is married and is a Basketball Coach at Wake Forest. Tom Hall is a salesman for Ford cars.

I was very tired and thirsty; so I stopped at the drug store. The attractive little "soda jerk" was Effie Price. She exclaimed that she was going to get married next month and move to Atlanta. She informed me that Mary Ann Moss is married to an X-ray technician and living in Florida. Edna Seaman is married to a doctor and is residing in New York. Larry Wiggins and Carroll Evans are living lives of bachelorhood in Tennessee. Our conversation came to an end, and I was on my way again.

As I was leisurely walking down the street, I noticed a policeman that looked familiar. Then in a second, I knew it was Dan Gilliam! He told me that Charles Burgin is a colonel in the army and is engaged to a girl in Hawaii. He said that Glenn Marlowe is a lawyer in Charlotte and his secretary is Dorris Reel. I also learned from Dan that Estelle Holland and Ray Lamb have been married two years. Then who do you think came up the street? It was Wayne Sprouse! He exclaimed that Arnold Baker and he drive Queen City Buses and like their jobs fine. Wayne also gave the astounding news that Mary Sumlin is teaching school in Chicago! And that Norma Harris is a famous short story writer, now living in Texas, and her business manager is Guy Lane!

One day while marketing at the grocery store in Glenwood, I saw Ruth Marlowe, who said that she was working in the bank at Marion and that Rebecca Shell had married a wealthy man and is living in Paris. She also told me that Ernest Ledbetter is manager of the Dixie Home Store in Morganton; and Mildred Aldridge is the wife of a famous baseball player who plays with the Yankees.

My vacation came to an end and I slowly climbed aboard the bus. Already seated in the bus was Hughcelle Martin. We started talking about our old school pals and he related that he had recently read in the paper that Doris Wilkerson is a missionary in South Africa. Hughcelle informed me that he was on his way to Raleigh to open his new department store, where Lou Ann Veirs will be his assistant manager. All too soon, we arrived at Hughcelle's destination, and I bid him good-bye.

As I soared along the road, I thought of my classmates and how scattered we had become in twelve years. While thinking back to my school days at Glenwood High, I was quite surprised that my classmates were now doing so well in life; and with a feeling of satisfaction, I closed my eyes and fell asleep.

CLASS PROPHETESS

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the members of the class of 1953 of Glenwood High School, having come to our last hours as a class and being of a sound mind, wish to will and bequeath the following items:

Article I

To Glenwood School we bequeath our love, loyalty, and deep appreciation for many opportunities we have had during our stay.

Article II

To the Principal and Faculty we leave our undying love and will our gratitude for all the efforts they have made in our behalf during our school career.

Article III

To the Junior Class we bequeath the dearest possession we have, the pleasure and many memories of being a Senior.

Article IV

To the Sophomores we will our love and all our foolishness to you.

Article V

To the Freshmen we will our ability in thinking.

Article VI

We, the Seniors, want to bequeath our individual request:

I, Rebecca Shell, leave my title "Cutest Girl", to Mary Lee Morgan.

I, Helen Hill, leave my ability to be quiet to Mary Lillie Swann.

I, Glenn Marlowe, leave my athletic ability to Jackie Mashburn.

I, Norma Harris, leave all I never learned from all the books I never read to Dorothy England.

I, Doris Wilkerson, leave my love for Ford cars to Dorcas Wilkerson.

I, Henry Humphries, leave my bus No. 33 to Harvey Mashburn.

I, Effie Price, leave to Shirley Baker the title of "Most Likely to Marry."

I, Mildred Aldredge, will my love to run the candy store to Shirley Westmoreland.

I, Wayne Sprouse, leave my dislike for bookkeeping to Kermit Cable.

I, Rose Ann Hensley, leave my title, "Most Popular", to Frances Stone.

We, Tom Hall and Wayne Laughridge, leave our ability to go to town anytime to Wayne Rumpfelt and Homer Morgan.

I, Doris Morgan, leave my title, "Most Courteous", to Hazel Morgan.

I, Arnold Baker, leave my mischievous ways to Eugene Marlowe.

I, Dan Gilliam, leave my friendly ways to Harvey Romine.

I, Ruth Marlow, leave my title, "Most Optimistic", to Thelma Morgan.

I, Lorene Donnahue, leave my love for driving to Ruby Frady.

I, Dorris Reel, will my ability to keep a steady boyfriend all through high school to Joyce Anderson.

I, Charles Burgin, leave to Loyd Ray my love for staying in the school office.

I, Betty Lou Gardner, leave my ability to be quiet and listen in class to Betty Lou Eplee.

I, Raymond Ledbetter, leave my high office as President of the Senior Class to Haskel Poteat.

We, Mary Sumlin and Mary Ann Moss, leave our love for each other to Patsy Marlowe and Frances Hensley.

I, Barbara Cooper, leave the typewriter that never spells right on a speed test to Dorothy Hope Bowman.

I, Ray Lamb, leave my love for agriculture under Mr. Wigley to Garvon Whetstone.

We, Lewis Walker and Marvin Williams, leave our love for geometry to Lee Roy Suttle.

I, Larry Wiggins, leave my even disposition to Jack Marlowe.

I, Anne Haney, leave my art of collecting various and sundry interesting things to do--and then procrastinating about doing them, to Helen Jones.

I, Anna Laura Morgan, leave the famous tales of my old cow to Joan Jaynes.

I, Guy Lane, leave my courtesy to Jimmy Thomas.

I, Ernest Ledbetter, will my ability to dodge the girls to Frank Guffey.

We, Betty Hall and Lou Ann Veirs, leave our ability in athletics to Willie Faye Kaylor.

I, Zula Mae Sprouse, leave my love for the boys to Loree Duval and Mavis Sprouse.

I, Nancy Marlowe, will my ability to plan a party anytime, anywhere, to Anne Ireland.

I, Katy Holland, leave all the books in the library that I have bought by overdue fees to Margaret Hawkins.

I, Estelle Holland, will my love for having fun all the time to Joan Lawing.

I, Edna Seaman, leave my ability and responsibility for writing this Last Will and Testament to Betty Smith.

I, Carroll Evans, leave my babyish ways to James Bledsoe.

I, Hughcette Martin, leave my school spirit to Glenn Whetstone.

I, Doris Ledbetter, leave to Frances Bruner, my title of the "Neatest Senior Girl."

We have hereto subscribed our names and affixed our seals this fifteenth day of January in the year of our Lord, one-thousand, nine-hundred and fifty-three.

To Mr. N.F. Steppe, Superintendent of McDowell County Public Schools, we, the students of Glenwood, wish to express our appreciation for years of faithful and untiring service to the youth of the county. During these years of his striving for improved public schools, there have been steady growth and improvement in school plants and educational opportunities throughout McDowell county.

We of this generation are aware of this diligent and sincere service and are grateful for these contributions to the youth of the past, the present, and the future.

Truly a far-seeing educator has helped to mold our lives. We are grateful.

To keep her always on top is

This block contains the first line of handwritten musical notation. It consists of two staves, a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass line is in the bass staff. The lyrics 'To keep her always on top is' are written across the staves in a cursive hand.

our aim. And come back some-day

This block contains the second line of handwritten musical notation. It consists of two staves, a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom. The melody continues from the first line. The lyrics 'our aim. And come back some-day' are written across the staves in a cursive hand.

when we all get wealth and fame.

This block contains the third line of handwritten musical notation. It consists of two staves, a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom. The melody continues from the previous lines. The lyrics 'when we all get wealth and fame.' are written across the staves in a cursive hand.
